DETAILED ACTION

Information Disclosure Statement

The information disclosure statement filed 7/21/04 fails to comply with 37 CFR 1.98(a)(1), which requires the following: (1) a list of all patents, publications, applications, or other information submitted for consideration by the Office; (2) U.S. patents and U.S. patent application publications listed in a section separately from citations of other documents; (3) the application number of the application in which the information disclosure statement is being submitted on each page of the list; (4) a column that provides a blank space next to each document to be considered, for the examiner's initials; and (5) a heading that clearly indicates that the list is an information disclosure statement. The information disclosure statement has been placed in the application file, but the information referred to therein has not been considered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 16 and 19-21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Maitra (4,037,648). Maitra discloses a heat exchange apparatus including a housing (2), a baffle plate (15) located within the housing which divides a first fluid passageway into a first flow path (4) and a mirroring second flow path (4), a first array of fluid conduits (7) provided within housing inside a first flow path and being capable of carrying a first fluid, a second array of fluid conduits (7) provided within the housing inside a second flow path which mirror the first array of fluid conduits and capable of carrying the first fluid, the first fluid passageway being defined by an internal surface (SEE Figure 2), the first fluid passageway being configured to carry a second fluid, the first fluid passageway includes an inlet (14) and a first outlet (which is the bottom opening of both flow paths (4) thus constituting a first and second outlet), each of the first and second array of fluid conduits include a first row of fluid conduits and a second row of fluid conduits being fluidly connected to a tubular inlet manifold (8) and an outlet manifold (9), with regards to claim 21, the sealing zone is evidenced by gate (5) which forms a seal defining the first and second flow paths.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 17 and 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Maitra (4,037,648) in view of Thompson (4,124,068). Maitra discloses the applicants primary inventive concept including first and second arrays of fluid conduits being fluidly connected to a first tubular inlet manifold (8) and a first tubular outlet manifold (9), the first and second arrays of fluid conduits furthermore consist of multiple rows of fluid conduits as shown in the illustration but does not particularly disclose that the conduits include heat transfer fins.

Thompson teaches that it is well known in the art to include fins on a liquid containing heat transfer tube.

It would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which the subject matter pertains to have modified the tubes of Maitra by using tubes as taught by Thompson for the purpose of providing a more enhanced heat transfer between the fluids of Maitra.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 2-15 and 22-41 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
